September marks the one year anniversary of the international community adopting the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development along with the Sustainable Development Goals at the United Nations in New York, following long and inclusive negotiations, in which the European Union played a very active role.

The Delegation of the EU to Australia, in collaboration with the University of Melbourne EU Centre on Shared Complex Challenges, invites you to a high-level panel discussion to explore what the global community is already doing to achieve the goals, what new measures are envisaged, and the likelihood of success.

The distinguished panel includes:

H.E. Sem Fabrizi
EU Ambassador to Australia

Sam Mostyn
President, Australian Council for International Development

Tim Costello
CEO, World Vision

Blair Exell
First Assistant Secretary, Development Policy Division, DFAT

Tuesday, 20 September
6:45pm - 8:00pm
Reception from 8:00pm - 8:45pm

Melbourne Brain Centre
Kenneth Myer Building
University of Melbourne
30 Royal Parade, Parkville
see map

REGISTER HERE

The panel discussion will be moderated by Maxine McKew and will include audience questions and answers and conclude with a networking reception.

Maxine McKew
Journalist and Vice Chancellor’s Fellow
University of Melbourne

Connect with us on Twitter for the latest on this panel discussion: @EUC_UoM

The EU Centre on Shared Complex Challenges is co-funded by the European Commission and the University of Melbourne

Images in header by: m-louis/rice*/Flickr, UN Photos/Primary Education in Viet Nam/Flickr, Erik Schepers/Windturbine/Flickr